Claims 9,10 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 9 and 18, there is insufficient description provided as to how the seat or backrest is moved between a folded and unfolded position. It is not clear as to how the positions are differentiated, i.e. what are the positions of the seat/backrest relative to the cooler in each position.

In claim 10, the recitation of "an awning assembly...", appears redundant, as such has been recited in claim 9.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Venza.

Figures 1,3 show structure as claimed, including a cooler assembly 16 having a lid 28, a backrest assembly 14 hinged thereto, and a seat assembly 12 hinged to the back assembly. An awning 52 extends from the cooler.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Venza in view of Byers and Howe.

To have formed the awning of Venza so as to be retractable via telescoping members, for a more compact structure, would have been an obvious modification to one with ordinary skill in the art in view of the suggestion of Byers (figs. 1,5). Likewise, the use of a retractable spool assembly, as shown to be conventional by Howe (figs. 1,2) would also be an obvious modification to one with skill in the art, for even more compactibility and portability.

Claims 3-8 and 11-17 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Imotani, Nazar, Brabant, Baltzel, Ciminelli et al, Lenz et al, and Tamura show various features of the invention.
